Description

Purchased new from Hull Brothers January 2020. The Case SV185 is a compact skid steer loader from Case's Alpha Series, designed for versatility in construction and landscaping tasks. It features a vertical lift design with an operating capacity of around 1,850 lbs, powered by a turbocharged diesel engine producing approximately 60 hp. The SV185 is equipped with a hydraulic system delivering about 20.6 gpm for efficient attachment operation, and boasts a spacious cab with good visibility and ergonomic controls. Its balance of compact size and impressive performance, along with compatibility with various attachments, makes it a popular choice for diverse job sites including construction, landscaping, and agricultural applications.
